Game of the Week

Worcester Wolves 69 | 37 Leaddonites Basketball

This Weekend

Another exciting weekend for teams across the YBL family; starting with tonight's games. With seventeen games over the three days - we're sure there will be a game close by for you to enjoy!

U15 West sees West Brom host Spartans in a battle for the three points! A win either way could see either team move from the bottom half of the table to the top five!

Majority of the games being played on Saturday come from the two Under 13 divisions and the Under 15s. In both the U13 and U15 sees Coventry derby's; with U13E Tornados vs Tornados II, while the U15 sees Coventry Tornados vs Coventry Elite. Exciting day for Coventry supporters.

U13 East sees a race for the top spot all three teams have the potential end the weekend at the top.

With many games being played, teams could move from both half to top half of their leagues, game management will be key to make sure they get the 'w'!

To get your Game Pic', on next weeks 'In the Zone', send your winning scoreboard photo to director@ybl.org.uk. A match report to go with it will highlight your club!

More Developing for Men

As the Development Men's league gets underway, and the introduction of Trojans and Stafford Spartans to the fray, the YBL would also like to welcome Newman University to the YBL Family. Taking the DevMen league to an impressive seven teams.

Their fixtures have been added to the website for you to add to the clubs' schedule.

We would like to wish everyone all the best for the upcoming season.
